Why Partner with Elite ?

Elite Cushion Co. is a manufacturer of Seating components and accessories for the furniture, design, and hospitality industries. Every day we strive to create the finest fiber, feather, & down products to enrich the lives of our customers through comfort.

Backed by nearly 30 years of both product and process development experience, Elite Cushion Co. has become one of the leading manufacturers of foam seating and bedding products. Innovative product designs and improvements, along with a fully integrated manufacturing system are all a part of our ongoing commitment to quality, satisfaction, and service. We exceed the expectations of every client by providing outstanding customer service and greater value, thus improving operation efficiency.

Customers worldwide recognize the need for quality assurance in selection of product manufacturers. Our commitment to quality is focused in our manufacturing processes. The best processing capabilities for producing the finest quality products are not always found in generic equipment. By combining years of product experience with innovative engineering we have custom-tailored our processes for producing the highest quality products. When choosing Elite the result is consistent product quality in every part produced. More assurance that you receive the same fine quality in every order.

Vision

To create products that provide extraordinary comfort to extraordinary people.

Mission

We are laying the foundation by offering products that provide optimum rest thus enabling our customers to get the most out of each day. By providing such tools we are empowering each individual to contribute to the building blocks that will propel humanity to all new heights. Remember, it is the work of the individual that remains the spark that moves mankind forward.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to make comfort attainable to every person on this planet. For we know that it takes sufficient rest to be happy, healthy, and to exert our best efforts daily.

Core Values

Foremost we value our relationships with our customers, treating everyone with dignity and respect. We integrate honesty, integrity, and business ethics into all aspects of our business functioning. We drive profitable and goal oriented results by investing in our customers, our company, and our people.

Goals

Our goal is to pioneer innovation in this industry. By doing so we are setting the stage for every individual to be pioneers on their path to self fulfillment and growth.
