Increase Your Sales

Let us help you attract customers who need to or want to follow a gluten free diet. Our products have exceptionally great taste and texture. We have tested them all over North Carolina and Virginia in taste events to introduce our products.

Our products are packaged to avoid any cross contamination from gluten products.

Gluten free products with superior taste command a higher menu price and it will attract repeat business and new business.

If you use GF products, compare us. We'll pass the test.

A Matter of Fact

Gluten free diets are not a fad. The number of people going to a gluten free diet is moving toward 30% of the population. They are doing it because it is healthier to eliminate gluten and the potentially adverse effect that it has on the human body.

I started this business because I wanted my gluten intolerant wife to be able to enjoy gluten free food. Most of it was over-priced and tasteless. My wife and I have made it enjoyable for the entire family to eat the same foods again.

Join the trend and improve your business.

Call us (336-949-4802) or contact us (contact@kalofoods.com) to sample our products and discuss how we can help you build your clientele and revenue.
